

104 C. 12). ASSESSMENT OF HYDROLOGICAL AND PHYSICAL STATUS OF TRADITIONAL WATER HARVESTING SYSTEMS IN KARNATAKA STATE USING GEO-SPATIAL TECHNOLOGIES AND MEASURES FOR RESTORATION AND REJUVENATION

Activities:

- Field survey for data base creation of around 13,500 TWHS state
- Technical reports on the status of TWHS along with measures for rejuvenation of all districts have been submitted to the concerned Zilla Panchayaths, and RDPR Department, GoK.
- Zilla Panchayaths and RDPR department under JALAMRUTHA, MGNREGA and Jalashakti Mission programmes incorporated the outputs of this project for restoration and rejuvenation.
- Technical Reports provided to DST, GOI for circulation among other state S & T Councils as per the recommendations of PAMC for large scale replication.

Glimpse: Kalyani in Rangasthala, Chikkaballapura taluk & District before Rejuvenation