

106 D. 2) Rainwater Harvesting Cell (RWH)

The RWH Cell in KSCST has been providing technical support to public/private institutions and organisations in implementing Rain Water Harvesting by conducting Awareness Programmes, workshops and providing Detailed Project Report (DPR) containing Roof water yield, Estimation and drawings along with Cost estimation of Different components required for implementation of Rain Water Harvest Ground Water Recharge.

RWH Cell provided technical guidance and submitted DPR to more than 500 Government and Private Organizations till date and around 6 organizations during the reporting period such as Gulbarga University, Shriram Shreyas Apartment, Mantri Apartment, Maharani Ammanni College. Karnataka Soaps & Detergents, Mysuru Airport etc., have been covered. So far more than 500 institutions in the state and more than 1,75,000 residential properties in Bengaluru have adopted RWH and GWR.

